

Veterans History Project

The Veterans History Project collects and preserves personal stories and other documents from America's war veterans, and those American civilians who served in support of them.

Veterans' interviews will be preserved according to professional archival standards, and loaded on the National Registry of Service on the Library of Congress Web site Submitted materials (scanned copies of, or audiovisual recordings, etc.) will be available to researchers, educators, family members and others at the American Folklife Center in the Library of Congress.

Voluntary Service is an official collection site for the Veterans History Project Program. We are looking for:

- Veterans who wish to tell their story
- Volunteers who wish to interview or help record their interview

Record our Military History for the Future! Participate in capturing American history! Call Marianne Davis (310)268-4350 for more information.